Highlights

PUEBLA CATHEDRAL

Is one of the largest novohispanic art museums, only in the cathedral kings altar exist two of the most important novohispanic art pieces, its golden altarpiece and the dume paint created by Cristobal de Villalpando. It's an amazing demonstration of Mexican history art.

PALAFOXIANA LIBRARY

It is another unique artistic and cultural treasure in the city, Created from Juan de Palafox y Mendoza donation of his personal library collection. It was increased later with the bishops collection donations and the Jesuitas confiscated books.

It's the unique antique library that survive in America in his original place and with its furniture, shelves and collection almost intact, for that reason UNESCO considered it in 2005 "World Memory".

ROSARY CHAPEL

The Rosary Chapel it is located inside Santo Domingo temple, The Chapel is constituted as an architecture master work, for that reason is considered for Puebla population "The 8th Wonder World". The chapel contains different symbolisms and each one represents something, and it is one of the most popular novohispanic baroque works, it was the first chapel dedicated for the Rosary Virgin that was built in Mexico.
