Highlights

PANORAMI VIEW OF ZACATECAS

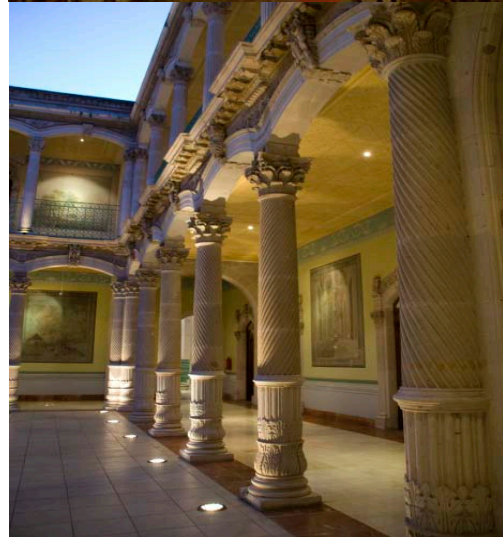

You will find breathtaking panoramic views from the top of El Cerro de la Bufa, where there is a look out point that is equipped with coin-operated binoculars and is the best place to admire the overview of the city. And, if you aren't afraid of heights, be sure to take a ride on the cable cars (teleférico) which run between the Cerro del Grillo with and the Cerro de la Bufa.

THE CERRO DE LA BUFA METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATORY

The Meteorological Observatory of Zacatecas is located at the top of the Cerro de La Bufa, east of the city, and which has a semi-temperate climate with summer rains. The first recorded weather observation was conducted in January 1876, although it wasn't until three decades later when the Meteorological Observatory of Zacatecas was inaugurated. According to the classification of the National Water Commission (CNA), Zacatecas is one of the best states in regards to meteorology nationwide.

THE MAUSOLEUM OF ILLUSTRIOUS MEN

The Mausoleo de los Hombres Ilustres is located on the hillside of the Cerro de La Bufa, in which lie the remains of various prominent personages of Zacatecas; such as Francisco Aguilar y Urizar pianist, composer and honored teacher at UAZ (Autonomous University of Zacatecas).
